Sex is a spirit and sex is evil. And that is why sex burns so severely. Any preacher of the Christian faith that comes to conclude that sex is good actually learned it from the world; not from the Bible. The original sin at the Garden of Eden is a supernatural Big Bang. It was set off by mankind s need to elevate the mind over the spirit; and it genetically altered all of God s creation on the earth. The law they received was quite unlike any other law. Its potent and power changed entire destinies-not only the destiny of man but of God s entire creation. The fact that Adam and Eve were married to each other, and did not have any knowledge of, and the desire for sex, clearly demonstrates that marriage was not about sex. It shows that God designed marriage to be about close loving relationship and intimate companionship between a man and a woman, in a common life in which God remains a continuous and indispensable part of. But the instant the couple ate the fruit from the forbidden tree they saw something evil in their nakedness-not nakedness itself. And once humanity lost holiness, human sexuality was activated, because that was a part of plan B that requires God s grace through faith in His Son Jesus Christ. And there was no going back to God s original plan for human increase and multiplication on the earth. Sex was an evil spirit that, unbeknown to them, was lurking under the power and authority they sought. And when it emerged, it threw them into...
