I did not discover Jhat the Sheristadar had unduly procured the removal of any servant to make room for a friend of fiis own, but I thought it proper to leave a memorandum on the subject for the information and guidance of Jhe new Collector Mr. Frese on his assuming charge of the district, of which the following is an extract. The late Collector had no doubt good and sufficient reason for removing many of the servants whom he found in employment, whose conduct had proved them unworthy of confidence, and additional servants were required for carrying into effect th.9 more detailed system of management which had been ordered. It js believed that it was necessary at the time to go beyond the district of Vizagapatam to seek for competent servants to replace those who had been removed, and to supply the new Offices. But the Governor thinks it was an error on the part of the Collector to bring so many new servants from one district, and that/istrict the one from which the Head Sheristadar had been taken. Several of the new servants it is understood are related to the Sheristadar and most of them it is to be presumed are connected, with him by some tie. The...
