THE KINGDOM OF GOD AT ROSE ROCK (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .While living in a world of harsh political and religious structures, Kent loses his baby to the unhealthy vaccines of a corrupt medical profession. Next, his wife succumbs to the horrific depression she suffers after her loss. The last straw comes as his teenage daughter is killed by gunshot in one of many riots ravaging their modern-day society. Reeling from the emotional effects of losing so many people he loves, Kent turns to drinking heavily and in the process alienates his sister-in-law who in turn acquires sole custody of Kent s only son, Brey. However, in a moment of inspiration, or insanity, Kent kidnaps Brey and they begin a homeless existence together. For two years they live in hiding, learning the lifestyle of homelessness until a broken relationship banishes them from their last bastion of comfort and community. Alone and starving, they go searching for Rose Rock, an urban legend of sanctuary somewhere in the nearby rural desert. But the search becomes futile and Kent accepts that inevitable death is approaching. Suddenly they are invited by an angel into Rose Rock and step into the peaceful, supernatural community where amazing miracles happen every day. Inside Rose Rock, every person hears and speaks to God as clearly as they speak to each other. Their community is structured without rules and God has no plans for judging the chaotic world outside. Here, He has brought a piece of heaven to earth and created a circle of love and comfort He intends to spread worldwide. It is a utopian environment where He is apparent to everyone and freely shares everything. This is a one-of-a-kind novel full of the...
