About five the tide was coming in so that by night most of them had left for their homes. A few were kept at home by sickness. We were greatly impressed with the large number of children. We spent Sunday at Lelu, and in the evening attended the regular Christian Endeavor meeting, --a most remarkable one, well conducted, and each one doing his part. At one time all the committees came forward and sang the Endeavor song. Let us go forth. Later about ten new names were presented and voted in. Then these came forward and signed their names to the constitution. The pledge was repeated by the members. The next day. Miss Wells and I called on the people at Lelu and some of them who lived across the bay. We have had such a delightful time here, talking over early days and scholars, gone out and gone before and fellow missionaries, --some gone before. Sometimes it does come over one with new force, --the glory of that meeting place where there is no parting and where we shall rejoice in seeing those from whom we have found it so hard to part now. A LUNCHEON PARTY BY ONE OF THE PARTY On Wednesday, April 17th, in response to an invitation from the Executive Committee of the Womans Board...
