The people have decided against that partyX)n the money question, and Congress has put the decision on the statute book. The I residents Fourth of July proclamation put Imperialism to sleep with Sixteen-to-one; civil government exists in the Philippine Islands by act of Congress. There is no more liuperialism in Luzon than there is in Indiana. The census, with its marvelous showing of the growth of our manufacturing industries, has put the finishing touch of demonstration to the arguments which long ago convinced the American people of the wisdom of the policy of protection. The democratic party prates about trusts and monopolies but proposes no practicable cure for them and fights every measure to that end proposed by the republicans. Is there anything more? The pathfinders of the democratic party have been hunting it with a candle for monthssomething to make a fight...
