Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Socializing is the new social media Face to Face Book is packed with over 600 questions to help you learn more about yourself, the people you know, and all the people you want to know better. There is nothing more satisfying than a really good conversation. Those are the times with our friends and family that we always enjoy the most. But have you noticed how we often talk about the same things? How much do we really know about each other? And how often do we think about our own lives in any detail? Sometimes it's good to ask something new. If people were to criticize you behind your back, what do you think they would say? Some questions in this book are great for self-discovery and personal growth. They will encourage you to think and reflect. They go beyond the surface. They explore the day to day business of life, and they also explore our dreams for the future and our memories of the past. Other questions are simple and fun. But...
